

West Nile virus cases detected throughout the state

Cases of West Nile virus spiked across much of Washington in 2009 and 2015, state data shows. Some of Washington's mosquito control districts this summer are reporting their highest numbers of mosquitoes carrying the disease since those upticks.

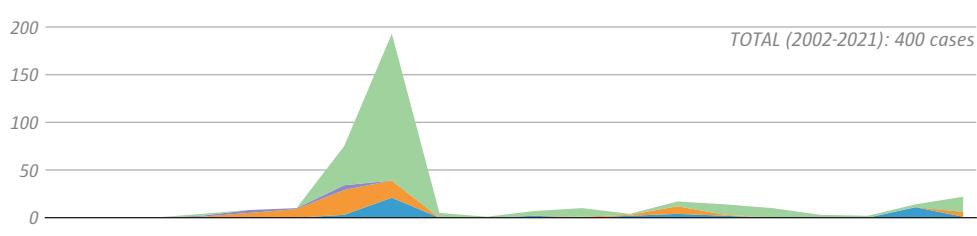

■ County with MCD
(Mosquito Control District)

 ■ Mosquito  ■ Bird  ■ Horse  ■ Human

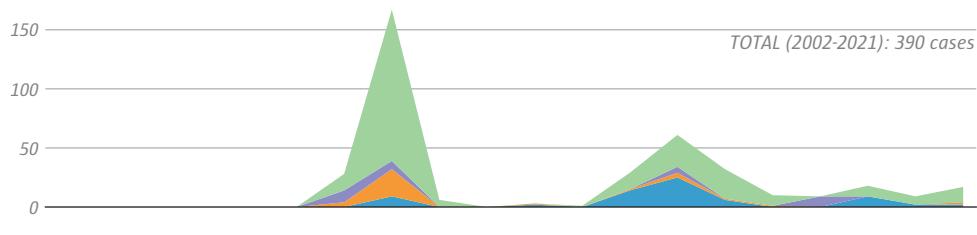

Grant: 435 cases

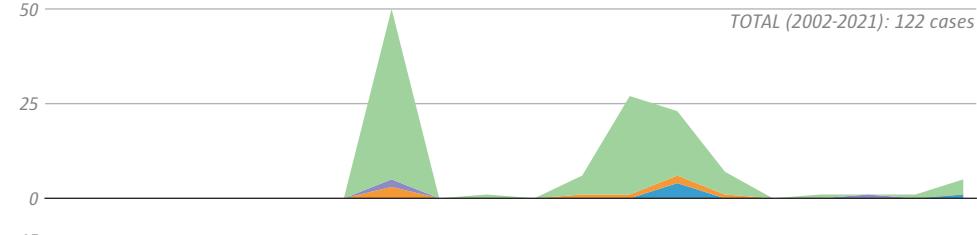

Yakima: 400 cases

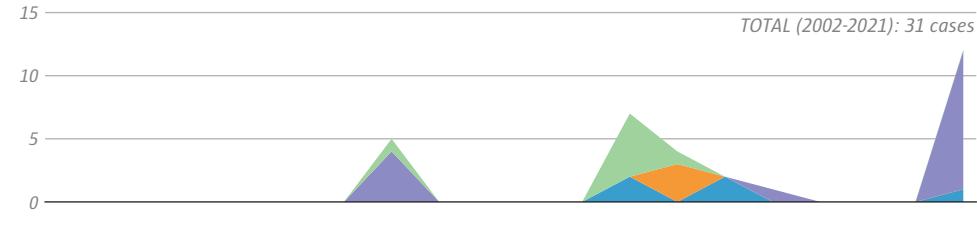

Benton: 390 cases

Franklin: 122 cases

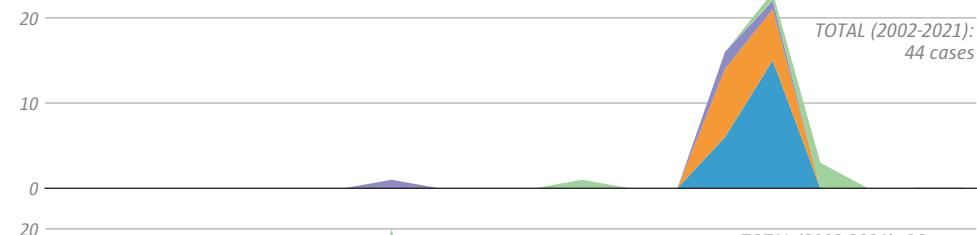

Walla Walla: 31 cases

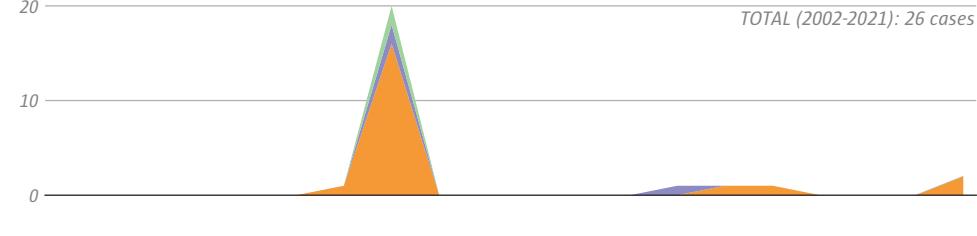

■ County without MCD

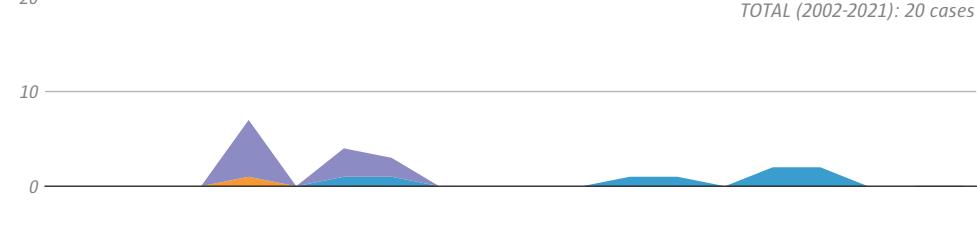

Spokane: 44 cases

Kittitas: 26 cases

King: 20 cases

Pierce: 13 cases

